Minutes of the Executive Committee meeting of 17 October 2018

The new FERPA Executive Committee, which was elected at the 8th Congress, met on the afternoon of 17 October under the chairmanship of General Secretary Agostino Siciliano to hold the elections for its President, Deputy General Secretary and Treasurer, as stipulated in Article VIII.2 of the By-Laws.

One candidate, Lajos Mayer (SZEF), stood for the position of President. He was unanimously elected.

One candidate, Angeles Briales Gonzales (UJP- UGT), stood for the position of Deputy General Secretary. She was unanimously elected.

One candidate, Ernesto Fumagalli (FNP- CISL), stood for the position of Treasurer. He was unanimously elected.

With the elections complete and there being no further business on the agenda, before closing the meeting the new president-elect Lajos Mayer thanked the Executive Committee for having elected him. He highlighted that this was a historic moment for the organisation as it was the first time that FERPA had had a president from this part of Eastern Europe.

To conclude, he thanked the attendees and the interpreters.
